LITTLE CLASSICAL GAS

Yes, it is a hard act to follow but someone out there is surely up to the challenge ...

After four years as Senior Editor of Classical Gas, Jennifer Orum would like to share the fun with another CJKJR or CCMGC member. We're therefore looking for a club member to work initially with Jennifer as Assistant Editor, then as Co-Editor and finally as the new Senior Editor. Some editing experience, although not necessarily magazine editing, is important. The Senior Editor works with Technical Editor Joe Carroll, Ad Manager Doug MacDonald as well as Al Riches (distribution), Mike Powley (website) and those responsible for layout and printing – and just as important, with all the club members who submit articles and photos. The Senior Editor attends executive meetings whenever possible, to remain familiar with club events, issues and culture. Anyone interested or wishing more information can contact Jennifer at jlorum@shaw.ca

COFFEE COFFEE COFFEE

APRIL 15TH

Welcome one and all to the first coffee/run of the year. Doug and Rhonda have planned a route in and around Burnaby, starting with coffee at Caffe Artigiano on E. Hastings at 10:30 (leave from Club House or meet there) leaving around 11:15, then heading south-ish visiting various parks and the PBF and eventually finishing on Burnaby Mountain at Horizons with the option to go in or go on with your day. The route is about 50 km and takes around 2.5 hours. We have a gift (from the city) for the first 20 cars. Please let us know if you plan to join us so we don't leave without you. We have reserved a large table for 10 at the Caffe, there is parking on Hastings and some spaces in the back. Rhonda/Doug 604-521-3021 or at the meeting!
