Presidents' Run 2006

This year's Presidents' Run took place on September 15-17. It involved driving through the Northern parts of Washington state.

Here is an excerpt of the weekend events—submitted by Chris and Sandra Venning. Day one we picked up the group on the road to Sumas at 10:00 am. The border crossing was unusually busy for a Friday morning. After getting our weekend grog at the Duty Free we set off to Anacortes. The cool morning was turning into a sun drenched day and it was now time to put the top down. Under Graham's lead we followed like a row of sheep. We had a lovely lunch at the Blue Mountain Grill on Hwy # 9; then it was off to Arlington through the back side of Sedro Woolley. During a rest stop in Darrington we discovered a very small one room liquor store owned by an elderly lady who's daughter was selling homemade jams and jellies for pocket money for her trip to Scotland. We all left with a bag of wine and jelly. We arrived at our Motel The Mariner Inn in Anacortes at 6:30 pm. Everyone was looking forward to diner at the local Greek Restaurant ...
